WITH

BRIAN MCLAREN

Atlantic School of Theology is thrilled to welcome Brian McLaren, presenter at our next Best Practices Institute. Author, speaker, and mentor Brian is at the forefront of the emerging church conversations. His books, such as The Church in Emerging Culture, A Generous Orthodoxy, and Everything Must Change are widely recognized for their role in provoking, inspiring and equipping congregational leaders to reach out and relate the Gospel for people today. Named by Time Magazine as one of the 25 most influential evangelists, he will offer practical, tested strategies for how to effectively share our faith and values with the secular world today.

17 - 18 September 2009
