video	Preaching Christian stewardship		1985	Materialism-religious aspects	1	SP V 217
	James Forbes shares insights into the relationship of stewardship and preaching. In this series of three videocassettes he asks participants to examine their own lives, the role of spirituality in stewardship, and the ways we speak about stewardship in the community of faith.
video	Simple gifts		1984	Visioning / Spiritual gifts	1	SP V 218
	Using our gifts that God has given us enables God's work to be done. Stewards need partners and in the church there are other stewards who can support each other. We can share in visioning together. Through financial stewardship we can accomplish God's will.
video	Stewards at work		1988		2	SP V 224
	Shows how biblical stewardship is a vital area of Christian teaching and promises to help individuals understand the importance of stewardship in their lives.
video	Stewardship visitation		198?	Visitation	1	SP V 214
	This video course guides groups through the planning of parish visits. It should be especially welcome to those new at visitation -- or those intimidated by the prospect. Staff Stewardship Officer Ron Reed leads a panel discussion of the "whys" and "why-nots" of parish visits, interspersed with exercises from the Problem Solving Theater troupe, who enact a wide variety of fears in anticipation of visits; the viewing audience is then invited to stop the tape for discussion and role-play. A practical and sensitive programme.
video	The hands of the steward		1987	stewardship	1	SP V 223
	Six people talk about different aspects of what it means to be a steward. No one who has seen "Hands of the Steward" can ever again think of stewardship as only dealing with money. People will be challenged, people can be changed.
video	The Names of money		1985	Money	1	SP V 219
	Designed to show the importance of money in Christian terms and remind us of its uses in the church. Most importantly, it is designed to help all of us in the church to deal more openly and positively with our own money especially in the life of the church.

video	The opportunity to give		1986	First portion giving Percentage giving	1	SP V 227
	Christian stewardship is the management of the affairs of God on earth. How much we have is not what matters--it's what we do with what we have that is of primary importance. While God calls us to manage 100% of our financial resources wisely, as Christians He expects us to bring a "first portion" gift to the church each Sunday. This video attempts to bring the viewer a number of vital concepts which will assist in growth and understanding of financial stewardship as a deeply spiritual matter.
video	The principles of Christian stewardship		1989		1	SP V 251
	Dr. Hilbert Berger contends that the study of stewardship and the total investigation of our faith should always be understandable and enjoyable. The first of the four sessions outlines the widest concepts of Christian stewardship. The next three sessions provide a theology of stewardship and Christian growth and give us a picture of the Church we'll never forget.
video	The way to go		1989	Tithes	3	SP V 266
	From Vancouver, Calgary, Ontario and Newfoundland, Anglicans share personal and family testimonies of their giving. This video was designed to help viewers acquire a deeper understanding of stewardship in general and tithing in particular.
video	Treasures		1980	Materialism-Religious aspects	1	SP V 225
	A symbolic look at stewardship and man's relationship to material possessions. The rich man fills a station wagon and U-haul trailer with his possessions and heads for the Kingdom trail. Finding it too narrow, he must cast off more and more of his treasures and ultimately, he comes to a new understanding of life's priorities.
video	Visiting can be fun		1988	Visitation	5 check	SP V 220
	This is a light-hearted, yet serious, "how-to" video to assist visitors to look at their visiting styles. The models shown are not perfect - some things are done well and some things could be improved. They offer an example of facing tough questions and seeing in them opportunities for new understanding.
video	Visiting for commitments		1983	Visitation	1	SP V 226
	A three-part video that is used to confirm the value of home visits for commitment. The first part shows the implications of securing visitors; the second, the implications of training visitors and the last, training the visitors.
video	When do I respond?		1985	Time management	1	SP V 221.c
	Time, a precious gift from God, can pass minute by minute without any plan on our part to use it as God wishes. This video explores using time wisely as good stewards of God's valuable gift. We are reminded that time is perishable and cannot be put into storage or loaned out or saved for days when there is just not enough. Time is also an opportunity. Excellent for small group discussions.

video	Where there's a will		1990	Wills	3	SP V 250
A light-hearted approach to why wills are necessary, this video stars Don Harron (as Charlie Farquharson), Dorothy Hamilton and Bill Carr. They deal with the importance of having a will and some of the stark realities of dying without one. video	Why do I respond?		1985	Gifts -- Planning / Motivation	1	SP V 221.b
Real people in a real church respond with their ideas on stewardship, and outstanding photography opens our eyes to the beautiful world God has created for us and to the many gifts He has given us to manage. Excellent for stewardship committees to assist and guide other church members in their response to God's many gifts. Planning guide features meeting outlines, Bible studies and prayers, a sermon outline.
