	A 4-part program portraying the spiritual journeys of people (seasons of the spirit) which coincide with the Christian seasons of Advent, Christmas, Lent and Easter, with Mardi Tindal narrating. For Advent, the season of waiting, Maria in British Columbia tells us of her escape from war-torn El Salvador and sanctuary in a church basement to avoid deportation. She is waiting for the day she and her children will be released just as we await the coming of Christ. The story about an exchange between youth in Canada and Tanzania shows how the youth made a difference through their experiences. They offered gifts to each other's part of the world. This segment depicts Christmas. Lent is depicted by a story about the Rae family from Nova Scotia who have suffered due to economic hardship but found the light when there was darkness. Daniel was critically ill with a cancerous tumour. Seven months after a bone marrow transplant his cancer is in remission and Daniel is an energetic 5 year-old. It is almost as if he is resurrected with Christ at Easter

video	The Story keepers		1996 -	Bible stories Jesus Christ		BS V2001.25
The story of Jesus based on the Gospel of Mark. The Story Keepers is an animated series about a group of first-century Christians facing persecution by the Roman Emperor Nero. They are determined to keep the stories of Jesus alive against all odds. The main heroes are Ben the baker, his wife Helena, and a group of children orphaned by the great fire of Rome. In telling the stories of Ben and his friends, viewers and readers learn more about Jesus of Nazareth as the two sets of stories are woven together, passing between the life of Jesus and those of underground Christians in first century Rome. The stories are engaging and well developed -- the Christians are brave, lively and humorous, while Nero and his soldiers are truly cruel and menacing. Developed by a Methodist minister in England, the series has won numerous awards and been widely endorsed by Anglicans, Catholics and other denominations
