Annual Project 2020/21

Supporting Parents: Stories That Matter

This is a project that responds very directly to a recommendation of Canada's Truth & Reconciliation Commission Report regarding culturally relevant parenting support for Indigenous communities, given the damaging legacy of residential schools. With this project, the Board is delighted to be partnering with the Mothers' Union to support their very successful parenting facilitator training program. We will be soliciting funds until at least the end of April 2021 so that the facilitator training program can be undertaken for Indigenous Communities in the Anglican Church of Canada's Council of the North. Your support is appreciated.
