

Rebecca (Becky) Coholan

Parish: Anglican Parish of French Village

“I feel called because I want to be the voice for the young people in our diocese and represent the younger generation in the Anglican Church. I also want to better understand the works of the national church. ...I continue to develop good communication skills. I have experience facilitating small group activities at DYC and Encounter weekend. I have a solid understanding of diversity and inclusion from attending youth conferences, and leadership training. When it comes to teamwork, I thoughtfully listen to people’s ideas, opinions, and concerns.”

- Interested in justice, ecumenical, and interfaith relationships
- Parish volunteer: church suppers, serving at the altar, youth group, fundraisers, attended DYC and CLAY; help with parish Tech Team
- Participant and leader at DYC and Encounter
- Acadia University: Chapel Assistant
- Summer student providing tours and programs at parish
- Work and school experience = a greater acceptance for community development, diversity, and inclusion
- Expanded my knowledge about justice issues that we experience as a church community, diocese and country

Magdalena (Maggie) Wiegers

Parish: St. Frances by the Lakes, Lower Sackville

“I have been following the meetings of NSPEI Synod and General Synod for the past 10 years and have awaited the opportunity to let my name stand for the Youth Delegate Position for a GS. I have become involved in the inner workings of the NSPEI Diocese in preparation and to gain experience with the format of reports, votes, and Synod etiquette. I am currently in the process of graduation with a double major in Religious Studies and Sociology and Anthropology, thus having a background of general knowledge as to how the social and global issues brought to GS impact church doctrine. ”

- fully bilingual, French/English; semi-fluent in ASL (American sign language)
- Parish Council and Synod Delegate (6 yrs)
- Licensed Lay Minister (4 yrs); Dio Council (since 2019)
- Leader and Design Team, several DYC and TEC wends
- Parish and camp youth leader
- accepted into AST for Mdiv; interest in religious doctrine and relationship between church and global outreach
- PWRDF and JustGeneration involvement
- Religious studies background with passion for environment
